The direction of her life transformed when she joined the Nirmal Ujjwal Credit cooperative Bank as their Branch Manager in the year 2002. There was no looking back since then. Year 2013 saw Rupali become the General Manager of Geeta Krishna Credit Co-op Society. Under her leadership, the bank saw a new dimension. In the year 2016 she opened the Dhanlaxmi Mahila Credit Cooperative and is the chairman since then. known as one of the top most powerful women in Banking business. This Indian lady is renowned for her corporate leadership and bold decision making skills. She is the leading example of today's women and her empowerment to make the world a better place to live in.

Being an important person of the core team she helped the organisation empower its wings and fly at distant skies. Her vision was far beyond the local level. It was she had the courage to keep working hours of the bank be 12 hours whereas rest all brands worked for 7 hours in a day.

She has a thorough knowledge of running a Bank with optimum efficiency and consistent dedication. She also has good reputation in local Banks and close contacts with the bankers, capability of running the business with good reputation, dignity, dedication and devotion and vast knowledge about this Business. She has travelled widely, met various successful bankers which in turn has best owed upon him the expertise of a successful business person.

The Clarity of vision, dedication, missionary zeal for implementation and management, monitoring & evaluation and above all the positive & enthusiastic approach make her different from the other Bankers.

Endowed with rare qualities of head and heart she makes her team move forward enthusiastically & successfully. She is friend and guide for their staff besides being person of principles having values for honesty, belief for quality and their approach for continued relations.

She follows the social responsibilities of respect, mutual help, and harmony, and actively participate in the construction of national economy. Guided by the enterprise motto-good faith is the base, she does her best to gain honor her, create value for customers, and make fortune for growth of the nation.

An eternal optimist she does not shriek away from challenges. She believes that competition provides the best value to consumers. For her challenges are no more confined to achieving scale but of aligning strategy of organization with changed environment.

A mother of one daughter, Rupali efficiently juggles her career with family along with her banker husband. She never slacks in her 24-hour schedule and utilises her breathing time to go through mails, telephonic conferences or to catch up on sleep. Her appointment as the head honcho of bank is an inspiration for all the women aspiring to make a mark in the corporate world.

A true inspiration for all men and women is Rupali More. She has achieved a perfect balance in between work and home. An optimistic for eternity, she is always up for the challenge and faces criticism fearlessly and with humility. Women in our country for ages has been struggling to play so many roles in their lives – as mothers, as homemakers, as business women, as innovators and as dreamers to build a nation's destiny. It is one and only one who can strike the balance of work and home can see the fruits of success and peace in life.
